PREFACE

This is the first of a two volume reproduction of Bonpo texts concerning the Zhi khro sadhanas and ritual according to the tradition followed by the famed Zhu lineage.

Each of the families of hereditary lamas had its own liturgical texts which were treasured and passed on from father to son, uncle to nephew. The Zhu practices focussing upon the Zhi khro group of deities are parallel to the Buddhist rediscoveries of Karma-gling-pa and focus to some extent on the bar-do visions which the deceased encounters. The practice of the Zhi-khro precepts in life may enable one to achieve deliverance from rebirth at the time of death.

The manuscripts reproduced here are from the library of the late Dpal-ldan-tshul-khrims, a famous Bonpo lay scholar, and were copied directly from the texts preserved at Sman-ri.
